PLOT SUMMARY

Four brave Earth students, Jackson, Lily, Joe, and Mia, known as the 'Askronauts,' embark on a cosmic adventure to the distant planet Krandor. Their mission? Explore its customs and share their learning.

In this charming world, the Askronauts befriend the Krandorians, including Kinter, the External Relations Manager, and the unique Kantrice, known for her peculiar way of communicating.

But the story takes a turn when Lily and Joe mysteriously disappear. Lily is kidnapped and taken to a dark dungeon by Krappyman and Kipiss, who devise an evil plan to disturb life in Krandor.

Mia and Jackson, in search of their friends, immerse themselves in the planet's daily life, visiting the Failure Institute, where young citizens embrace mistakes as a path to growth, or Pain B-Gone, a curious medical center where they discover that helping an injured friend benefits the entire community.

Meanwhile, Lily remains captive in the gloomy dungeon where Kipiss and his henchmen interrogate her with ineffective methods.

Jackson and Mia's journey leads them to a Krandorian restaurant, where they reunite with Joe, now a waiter who has embraced Krandor's culture. Despite his initial reluctance, Joe decides to return with his friends after a heartwarming reunion. The story concludes when Lily escapes her captors and shares her adventures with the group.

Enriched by their experiences in Krandor, the Askronauts decide it's time to head back home. They bid farewell to their Krandorian friends and discover that a Krandor representative, Kipiss, is headed to Earth to learn about its culture, with hidden intentions in mind.

MAYOR JACK stands on a lifted stage and addresses the crowd at his podium. JACKSON, LILY, JOE, and MIA stand on both sides. They're dressed in astronaut gear.

MAYOR JACK

Today is a very special day.

PERSON IN CROWD 1

Tuesday?

MAYOR JACK

What? No, it's launch day. Today marks the beginning of a new day.

PERSON IN CROWD 2

Wednesday?

MAYOR JACK

No! As you all know, there's still so much we haven't discovered. Back in 2062, we made great progress in answering life's questions, but our journey doesn't end there. We are humans, and humans need to explore and discover and grow. So we must venture into the unknown so that it may become the known!

Cheers SFX

Everyone cheers.

MAYOR JACK

In light of this, we will be hosting some young aliens in place of our wonderful ASKronauts from the planet of Krador. To my side stand four brave and honorable question askers and answer seekers. Our previous ventures were performed by astronauts, as we all know. But for this new mission...we have our ASKronauts.

Everyone cheers. JACKSON, and the others, wave.

MAYOR JACK

Our first askronaut, is Jackson.

JACKSON

(Southern)

Hi, y'all! I really appreciate the opportunity to learn from other planets. Knowing everything is cool and all but I'm kinda bored now.

MAYOR JACK

Yes, as are we all.

GIRL IN THE CROWD

(Excitedly, from the crowd)

Jackson, I love you!

JACKSON

Oh, uh... Thank you! I appreciate the love and support from all of you!

MAYOR JACK

Seems like Jackson has quite the fan club here! Thank you for the enthusiasm, ladies. Let's continue with the introductions. Our next askronaut is Lily.

LILY

Hey everyone! I'm really excited to go on this experience! Askronaut training was really fun...except the time I barfed on the high-g training. But no more barfing for me!

MAYOR JACK

I would say that's "too much" information but there's no such thing anymore! Introduce yourself, Joe.

JOE

I'm Joe.

Pause.

MAYOR JACK

Anything else you'd like to tell us?

JOE

No! Dad, you're embarrassing me.

ASKRONAUTS

MAYOR JACK

I'm just really proud that my own son gets to embark on this -

JOE

Dad!

MAYOR JACK

Sorry, yes. Thank you, Joe. And finally, Mia.

MIA

HIYA!

MIA does a karate chop and kick.

MIA

That's what I'm going to do to any threats along the way. It's always good to have security details and my martial arts training is going to keep us safe. I did accidentally sign up for marital arts classes initially so I've got good advice too.

MAYOR JACK

Thank you, Mia! I am so proud to be sending this special group on this important quest. Ladies and gentlemen

KANTRICE

I'm angry I have to meet you. You all smell like stinky socks.

The askronauts are speechless.

KINTER

I completely forgot to tell you! Kantrice has a personality quirk called 'oppo-speak.' Everything she says...she means the opposite.

KANTRICE

He's wrong!

LILY

Oh, okay! We're very excited to explore your planet. How big is it?

KANTRICE

How big is it? Why, it's tiny! Miniscule. Infinitesimal.

JACKSON

But, I thought...

KANTRICE

Don't allow me to tell you all the horrible, boring things about this planet!

#10 THE TRUTH ABOUT KRANDOR

Kantrice:

You probably haven't heard the rumors—
Well, they're all wrong!
This tiny, barren tumor
Of a planet isn't worth one song!

Not much to do, and less to see—
The food's not even great!
If you don't like meals sans flavor (me!)
I'm not sure you'll find tons to hate!

Mia (Spoken):

Ok, I know she speaks in opposites, but I'm still getting confused...

Joe (Spoken):

Me too.

Lily (Spoken):

Me three.

Jackson (Spoken):

Ditto.

Kantrice:

I'd hate to lead you on a tour
Of this small, ugly planet!
And if you don't have no questions for me,
Don't feel free to CAN IT!

Photography is frowned upon!
Displease, forget to credit!
I'd hate for folks to find out less
On Instagram and Reddit!

Mia (Spoken):

Ok...

Kantrice:

So, if you don't want
The truth about Krandor?
It's a boring land for
No one!
And, it's super lame!

There's nothing good to say about it!
Find a flaw? Well, I don't doubt it!
I hate Krandor,
And I don't hope
That you feel the same!

Kinter: (Spoken):

You said it!

Kantrice:

You probably traveled from so near
Just to un-learn—but have no fun! Here,
There's just no activity
That's worth your time. Not much to see!

For enders, we should definitely
Not go for a ride inside
Our hoverships below the city.
The views are garbage—far from pretty!

Later, I don't recommend
The beaches, where I couldn't spend
Even a day! A getaway
Like many others! Given my druthers,

I would always leave! But, for a similar pace,
The same old place,
I don't suggest we take a cruise
Out on the water. It's a snooze!

Kantrice:

So, if you don't want
The truth about Krandor?
It's a mean old land for
No one!
Plus, it's really lame!

This planet's super dull and boring!
Have I got you peasants snoring?
I hate Krandor,
And I don't hope
That you feel the saaaaammmmmmmeeeeee!!!!

Kantrice (Spoken):

You're welcome, you're welcome!

Before the song ends, Lily quietly slips off-stage unnoticed by the others.

KINTER

Wow, beautifully put.

The askronauts understand a little better.

MIA

Well, we're not excited to explore your dumb world.

KINTER

Do you have oppo-speak as well?

MIA

No.

KINTER

Well then that is very rude.

JACKSON

What she's trying to say is that we're happy to meet you and the citizens of Krantor.

JACKSON turns to address the askronauts and notices JOE and LILY are gone.

JACKSON

Joe? Uhm, has anyone seen Joe? And Lily? They're both gone!

MIA

They were just here! Lilllyyyy? Joe?!

KINTER

Don't worry, askronauts, Kantrice is an expert tracker. She can help you find them.

JACKSON

Perfect.

#15 THE END OF EVERYTHING THAT IS GOOD AND KIND

Krappyman:

For years, I've longed to purge this planet of
Its loathsome, sickly-sweet surplus of love!
There's just too much of it going around—
Enough to put me in the ground!

Kipiss (Spoken):

Tell it like it is, boss!

Krappyman (Spoken):

I was, before you interrupted me!

Kipiss (Spoken):

Sorry, sorry. Go on...

Krappyman (Spoken):

I will! clears throat

Krappyman:

The cheerful citizens of Krador, well,
They never seem to get themselves down!
I'd like to squash their sunniness to a pulp
And turn those smiles into frowns!

There's too much "How do you do?"
Instead of "Hey, forget you!"
And no one ever feels left behind!
Well, soon, this world will be changed!
I've got this big plan arranged
To bring the end of everything that's good and kind!

Lily (Spoken):

You're crazy!

Krappyman (Spoken):

Why, thank you!

Kipiss (Spoken):

Spoken like a true madman!

Krappyman (Spoken):

Am I a madman? Or simply...a visionary?

Lily (Spoken):

More like 'hardly scary'...

Krappyman:

It isn't normal to be happy
Every second of the day!
Not even when the kids at school mess up,
Are they punished? They get told "Hooray!"

Not even failure's enough to knock
Some common sense into these fools!
They're such a dense, unbothered hivemind that
You couldn't drill their brains with power tools!

Kipiss (Spoken):

Ain't that the truth!

Lily (Spoken):

Oh boy...

Krappyman (Spoken):

Now, it's time to be ruthless...

Krappyman & Kipiss (Spoken):

And kill their joy!

Krappyman:

It's not right to never feel wrong!

Kipiss:

But we won't keep on playing along!

(Spoken):

Change our mind!

Krappyman:

'Cause, once our plan's in motion,

Kipiss :

Tears will flood the ocean!

Krappyman:

It's the magic potion

Kipiss:

To cure this devotion

Krappyman:

To just one emotion!

Kipiss:

Here, put on some lotion,

Krappyman:

'Cause you're gonna need some

Kipiss :

Once the burning greed comes

Krappyman:

And the love gets wiped out.

Krappyman & Kipiss:

Hope you're getting psyched out!
It's the end of everything that's good and kind!

Lily:

Your plan sounds vague...

Kipiss:

But, like the plague...

Krappyman:

You can't detain...

Krappyman & Kipiss:

This hurricane...

That's coming,

The greatest game-changer since indoor plumbing!

The war's already won, but the corps keeps on drumming!

Too late to hit REWIND, 'cause it's

KOOTAM

Of course it does! Here on Krantor we encourage our young citizens to fail as much as possible. That way, when they graduate from the Failure Institute, they're full of knowledge learned during their many failures.

JACKSON

Well, I'll be darned. I wish I failed more.

KOOTAM

The young citizens are graded on how many times they fail at a lesson. The more failures, the better their grade.

If we graded like this on Earth I would've been top of my class.

KOOTAM

It's easy to fail and you must do it often to grow! I think it would be beneficial to adjust your point of view.

#17 FAILURE IS NOT SO BAD

Kootam:

What I hope
You'll come to learn
Is that to fail
Should not be such a big concern,

Because it's normal,
And everybody takes their turn.
(Kinty, Kooty, and Kimmit join in)
You and I and everybody here
Will crash and burn!

Mia (Spoken):

That's not very encouraging!

Kootam (Spoken):

Oh, but it is! In fact, it's the best way to learn!

Jackson (Spoken):

I think it's best to just know things already.

Kootam (Spoken):

But where's the fun in that?

Jackson (Spoken):

I don't know, seeming smart is kind of fun.

Kootam (Spoken):

Would you say if someone fails, they're not smart?

Jackson (Spoken):

Yes. Well, I don't know. Maybe not?

Kootam (Spoken):

Maybe not!

Kootam:

Failure's not so bad,
Failure's part of life.
Ideas you never had
Can come throughout all the strife,

(Entire K Ensemble):

Of falling down and crashing hard,
But, in due time, you'll see:
Failure helps you to become
The best that you can be!

Mia (Spoken):

I guess I never really thought of it that way before.

Jackson (Spoken):

Me, neither.

Kootam (Spoken):

Well, what do you think?

Mia (Spoken):

The concept is growing on me.

Jackson (Spoken):

Me, too.

Kootam:

Here on Krantor,
We teach that no one
On sea, or land, or
In the sky is ever really done

With all their learning

(Entire K Ensemble):

So, if you mess up, good for you!
Take your time, dust yourself off,
And gear up for Round Two!

Kootam:

I'll let you in on a little secret,
And once I spill, you don't have to keep it!
Come closer! Here! Oh, this one's juicy!
It might seem goosey, but trust me. You see...

(Entire K Ensemble):

Lay it on me!

Mia (Spoken):

What is it?

(Entire K Ensemble):

Nobody's perfect.

Jackson & Mia (Spoken):

What?

(Entire K Ensemble):

Nobody's perfect.

Jackson & Mia (Spoken):

That's it?

(Entire K Ensemble):

And you're all worth it.

So, keep on [Chuggin' and chug-chug-chuggin' along.

Buggin' won't help when you're wrong.]

(4x)

Kootam (Spoken):

Now, do you see?

Jackson (Spoken):

I see!

Mia (Spoken):

I see!

(Entire K Ensemble):

Yipeeeeeeee!

Failure's not so bad,
Failure's part of life.
Ideas you never had
Can come throughout all the strife
Of falling down and crashing hard,
But, now, you finally see:
Failure helps you to become
The best that you can be!

(K Ensemble + Jackson + Mia):

Yes, failure helps you to become
The best that you can be!

KANTRICE

and I think it deserves to be destroyed forever.

Don't follow me!

KOOTAM

Goodbye, Earthlings. Remember, fail often. Never stop failing!

As the Askronauts walk away MIA bumps her foot on a piece on construction material.

MIA

Oww!

JACKSON

Are you okay, Mia? Can you walk?

MIA

It hurts too much to walk on it.

KANTRICE

We need to stay here and not get you help.

JACKSON

Kantrice is right. Even though it's super confusing.

KOOTAM

Follow Kantrice. She will take you to the Pain B' Gone.

MIA

Pain be gone?

KOOTAM

Yes. It's where we take anyone that experiences physical or emotional pain. They'll help you get better.

KANTRICE

We must move slowly. Mia doesn't need help. Don't follow me.

KANTRICE and JACKSON help MIA up and allow her to put her weight on their shoulders. They walk off stage towards the Pain B Gone.

KINNIE

We need a Pain B Gone specialist right away!

KUNDIE comes out ready to help.

KUNDIE

How can I help?!

JACKSON

Our friend hit her shin hard.

KUNDIE

Let me see.

MIA shows her bruised shin.

KUNDIE

Hmm, that's a level 3 ouchie wowchie. I'll be right back?

KUNDIE exits.

JACKSON

The heck is a level 3 ouchie?

KINNIE

It's the pain meter we use here to classify pain.

MIA

What are the other levels?

KINNIE

We have ouchie wowchies, levels 1 through 3. Then booboo bo-who levels 4 through 6, and finally yowza wowza levels 7 through 9.

MIA

For the help.

KUNDIE

Why would I charge you for pain removal? If any of our citizens are in pain then all of us are in pain. If we are to be a happy planet, then everyone needs to be in good health. The askronauts look around. This makes sense.

#21 A LITTLE BIT GOES A LONG WAY

Kundie:

A little bit goes a long way
In keeping everyone all right.
When one of us isn't A-OK,
It's our shared battle to fight,

Kinnie:

A little bit goes a long way
Even when you think it doesn't count.
If someone's dealin' with a bad day,
Give what you can, in any amount.

Kinnie and Kundie:

'Cause we're only as strong
As the least of us,
So, to get along,
We gotta treat the matter seriously,

And with Pain B' Gone,
We can all carry on,
'Cause a little bit goes a long way
To make this place thrive.

And I'm not talking money,
But, of course you still can.
Just extend them some love.
Even smiling can trans-form
The sorriest of souls
Into someone on a roll,
'Cause a little bit goes a long way
To help us arrive.

Kundie:

'Cause a little bit goes a long way
In keeping everyone all right.
When one of us isn't A-OK,
It's our shared battle to fight,

Ensemble:

And nobody's gonna save you,
So, don't you misbehave.

Now, do you understand? I've got the

To make you sing...Like a canary...

I doubt you have the fortitude
To stay steadfast and resolute.
Don't make me more bad than I have to

I'm serious, you'll see:

I've got these horrible, wretched things,
Like these necklaces and diamond rings,
And nobody's coming for you,
So, don't make me explore

Just how deplorable torture is.
It's villainous, yeah, but that's the biz,

And these horrible
And deplorable
And these wicked
And empty sick and twisted things
Are gonna make you sing

MIA

But...you're an askronaut!

JOE

I was an askronaut.

JACKSON

You've only been on Krandor for a day.

JOE

And that's all the time I needed.

MIA

Needed for what?

JOE

To understand that Krandor is way better than Earth and that I want to live here and not go back.

MIA

You're not going back?!

JOE

Why would I? Krandorians appreciate failure, and here, you can change jobs whenever you want. Did you know that people here turn street cleaning into a sport? They've even invented a device that transforms waste into food, addressing both hunger and waste issues simultaneously. I've personally converted my old socks into ice cream! Moreover, the Krandorians welcomed me as one of their own immediately.

ASKRONAUTS

MIA

Your feelings are valid, Joe...but before we move this conversation along...did you ask me what my "inside person" wanted to eat?

I did. That is the other cool thing about Krantor. They feed your stomach with literal food AND your metaphorical emotional stomach.

JACKSON

So like soul food?

JOE

Yes! Exactly.

MIA

What soul food is on the menu?

JOE

For today's soul food we have three options. The first is a picture video of a young Krandorian helping an older Krandorian cross the street. The older citizen was having difficulty due to the water falling from the sky. Our second option is...

JACKSON

Wait a minute! Joe, you can't stay here.

I don't want to do this but I'll be forced to roundhouse windmill kick you if you don't come with us.

JOE

Fine.

JOE calls back to KOPPEN.

JOE

Koppen!

KOPPEN appears.

KOPPEN

What is it?

JOE

My friends are making me leave. Can I just have my paycheck?

KOPPEN

Of course.

Pause.

KOPPEN

You're a very kind boy.

JOE looks confused.

JOE

Thanks...and the paycheck...?

KOPPEN

That was your paycheck. We pay everyone in compliments.

JOE

Compliments?! I cleaned up baby Kradorian poop in the bathroom for 1 compliment?! I do like it here but I don't want to work for compliments. I think I want to go back home with you guys.

LILY busts in through the doors.

LILY

Finally, I found you! I was taken and tortured, kind of. They kept asking me questions.

JACKSON

What questions? And why is your face wet?

ASKRONAUTS

WWW.KAIKANAMUSICALS.COM

LILY

Puppy kisses. This mean thing wanted to know why there were bad vibes on earth. Why people get stressed and are mean to each other.

MIA

What did you tell them?

LILY

The truth. Things happen fast and not everyone takes the time to think of others before they act. Instead of sharing, we hoard and that leads to more hoarding and less people with the things they need. Most people don't mean to do it, but it happens.

MIA

Plus, some people are just meany buttheads.

The other askronauts nod and agree with each other.

JACKSON

I'm glad you're alright but it's time to go back home. Show us the way, Kantrice.

#29 WHAT I'LL TAKE BACK WITH ME

Mia:

I've learned so much in such a short time.
Made new friends, and truthfully, I'm Trying not to cry.
It's hard to say goodbye.

Joe:

I wish that we could build a life here.
Everything they said seems so clear!
But we've got to go,
Teach our home what we now know!

All Askronauts:

What I'll take back with me
And never will forget

Mia:

Is that failing's actually
A way to get you set

All Askronauts:

For a brighter future,
I feel more prepared somehow.
Maybe life could have been sweeter
If I'd known what I know now.

What I know now.
What I know now.
What I know now.
What I know now.

Jackson:

Our learning is unlimited!
Like Kootam, Kooty, Kinty, and Kimmit said,
Failure's part of life.
You can grow through all the strife.

Lily:

And you don't have to hold yourself back!
Try new things! You might just be a Jack
Or Jill of all trades,
'Cause failure can pay off in spades!

All Askronauts:

And to help someone is helping all.
Pick others up if they should fall.
We're all in this together.
There's no storm that we can't weather!

All Askronauts:

What I'll take back with me
And keep close to my heart
Is that life's a journey.
You won't end right where you start.

There's a universe out there,
And so many points of view.
If you let yourself be open,
You might learn something new.

What I'll take back with me
Is that we've got some work to do.

LILY

I'm curious to see what Earth is like with a Krandorian as an influencer.

MIA

I hope it only costs 1 compliment for some Reese's peanut butter cups.
